Future Fundraising Events

I hope you are all looking forward to the spring break—we can only hope that the weather improves.

As you are all no doubt aware by now, we have had to cancel the Quiz Night again for the 3rd time. We honestly hoped that we could get this one off the ground, however this was not to be. We are looking at changes of venue to see if that would improve things, but that will be some way off now.

We are seriously having to look at what events we do decide to do because obviously we want them to be a success, so maybe moving the events into the community would be more beneficial.

Only a few questionnaires have been returned (thank you to all those who replied) but if you can find them and return them to me, it gives us a better idea of what to arrange. Thank you.

On a lighter note, Mandy Dellar is doing an abseil down the Maternity Block (weather permitting) to raise money for the mini bus. She is planning to do this on Saturday 11th July, and to sponsor her you can contact school reception and give her your support.

Coffee Morning and Books

On Friday the 22nd (the Friday before half term), we are having a coffee and nibbles morning in the Resource Room. We are also selling some of the books that were left over from the Book Fair we had a while back. You don't have to come for the whole morning, you can pop in and out at your leisure. We will be starting at 10am and this is open to parents, carers, family members and staff. All welcome. Coffee and cake and biscuits will be available to munch during the morning.

See you there.

Cash Donations for Online Shopping

In this day and age we do a lot of shopping online, so PATH have hooked up with an organization called The Giving Machine, so that everytime you shop at certain places online, a donation is made to the school.

All you do is go onto the website—www.thegivingmachine.co.uk—and click on join. You then set up a password and select Choose Beneficiaries. Type in Heathside and then select Heathside School, Ipswich (there are 2 Heathside Schools). Then you can click on where you want to shop, and get spending.

The shops are listed on their website, but here is just a few:-

Amazon.co.uk	Tesco	Apple
B&Q	Toys R Us	Asda
Ebay	John Lewis	Play.com
PC World	Staples	Early Learning Centre
Halfords	Next	More Than
Dell	HSBC	Disneyland Resort Paris
Currys	Wallis	Vodafone
British Home Stores	Marks and Spencer	Waterstones
HMV	Dorothy Perkins	Next
Moonpig.com	Staples	Sky Digital
Game	Comet	Burtons
Mothercare	Ryman	Holland & Barrett

You don't have to donate anything to the school, it's all done via the Giving Machine.
